12 JESSICA L. ASHBY,
Defendant.

CASE NO. CR17-111-JCC

ORDER DIRECTING THE PARTIES
TO SUPPLEMENT THE RECORD

13 This matter comes before the Court on defendant Jessica Ashby's June 8, 2017 motion
14 for release from pretrial detention. Dkt. 35. Defendant seeks to be released from pretrial
15 detention to accommodate addiction and pregnancy needs. Specifically, Ms. Ashby was recently
16 diagnosed by her obstetrician with placenta previa, a condition that makes her pregnancy high-
17 risk. Id. at 3. Defendant requests that she be released from the Federal Detention Center on 18 condition that she complete twenty-six days of in-patient treatment for substance abuse and 19 assume residency with her family. Id. at 4. However, defendant does not explain why her high-
20 risk pregnancy would necessitate release.

21 The Court, having considered the motion and the relevant record, hereby ORDERS the 22 defendant to supplement the record by no later than Friday, July 7, 2017, to address how the 23 risks associated with her pregnancy will be exacerbated by remaining in the Federal Detention
24 Center.

1 The Court further ORDERS plaintiff United States to address whether the Federal
2 Detention Center is equipped with adequate resources to accommodate Ms. Ashby's medical
3 condition, placenta previa, should she remain in federal custody, by no later than Friday, July
4 14, 2017.

5 The Clerk is directed to send copies of this order to the parties and to the Honorable John
6 C. Coughenour.

7 Dated this 28th day of June, 2017.
